Welcome!

Schnell, drei Wörter, die Ihnen zu Kalifornien einfallen! Sonne, Strand, Surfen? Das alles gibt es dort zwar – aber ist das nicht ein bisschen zu viel Klischee? Wie wär's stattdessen damit: Nebel, Naturschutz, Nachhaltigkeit. Alle drei sind nicht nur genauso typisch kalifornisch wie die eben beschworene Baywatch-Szene, sondern auch eminent wichtig für den kalifornischen Weinbau. Der Nebel, der sich fast täglich entlang der Westküste bildet und von dort ins Landesinnere strömt, sorgt dafür, dass in Kalifornien heute mit modernem Winemaker-Knowhow ausgesprochen feine, elegante Cool-Climate-Weine entstehen. Und im Naturschutz waren die Kalifornier immer schon gut: Wussten Sie, dass es dort allein sieben grosse Nationalparks gibt? Nachhaltigkeit schliesslich ist das Wort der Stunde – wohl in keinem anderen US-Bundesstaat ist das Bewusstsein für den langfristigen Schutz der natürlichen Ressourcen so ausgeprägt, und das California Wine Institute trägt mit einem eigenen Regel- und Empfehlungswerk dazu bei.

Aber entdecken Sie selbst! Über 150 Aussteller sind eigens in die Schweiz gekommen – einen wichtigen Markt, werden hier doch jährlich rund neun Millionen Liter kalifornischer Wein getrunken – um Ihnen die Vielfalt ihrer Produkte nahe zu bringen. Diese gemeinsame Veranstaltung von VINUM und dem California Wine Institute, das über tausend Weingüter vertritt, bietet Ihnen die einmalige Gelegenheit, mit den Winzern direkt ins Gespräch zu kommen und Ihre Auswahl aus dem Sortiment zu treffen – sei es als Händler oder als Merkliste für ihren privaten Keller. Und um gleich noch ein weiteres Klischee zu entkräften, diesmal puncto Küchenfertigkeiten unserer transatlantischen Freunde, sorgt der Küchenchef des «Park Hyatt» mit spannender California Cuisine für Ihr leibliches Wohl.

Herzlich willkommen und eine spannende Verkostung!
